

Wine Spectator's

advance

www.winespectator.com

A SNEAK PREVIEW OF THE BUYING GUIDE FOR THE APRIL 30th ISSUE

Wine Spectator's April 30th issue celebrates Italian cuisine with mouthwatering recipes and wine-matching advice. The wine reports include German Riesling, 2003 Vintage Port, and a preview of the 2004 wines from France's Northern Rhône Valley.

94

HIGHLY RECOMMENDED

JOH. JOS. PRÜM

*Riesling Auslese Mosel-Saar-
Ruwer Graacher Himmelreich
2004 • $38*

The nose is marked by matchstick now, but this is positively crunchy on the palate. The vibrant structure and clarity set the tone for its peach, citrus and mineral notes. It's refreshing and alive, with a mouthwatering finish. Needs time. Best from 2009 through 2030.—B.S.

The vineyard Graacher Himmelreich

The Joh. Jos. Prüm Estate

